The Holzbock Scholarships were established by Werner Holzbock to support undergraduate students majoring in humanities disciplines at Oakland University. This award is supported by an endowment administered by the College of Arts and Sciences.

DEFINING THE AWARDS: Multiple scholarships are awarded annually to undergraduate student majors from the departments of Art and Art History, English, History, Linguistics, Modern Languages, or Philosophy.

ELIGIBILITY FOR HOLZBOCK SCHOLARSHIP IN ART AND ART HISTORY. Applicants must:

- have completed 62 credits (i.e. be entering their Junior or Senior Year)
- have a minimum GPA of 3.0 overall and at least 3.6 in department major
- have earned at least 16 credits of their department major at Oakland University

SIZE OF AWARDS: Amount will vary depending on year. Recipients will be required to enroll at OU for at least 12 credits in each of the two terms when the scholarship will be in effect. These credits need not be in the major. The funds will be applied against tuition.

QUESTIONS? Ask Professor Susan Wood (307 WH, 248.370.3378, wood@oakland.edu), Chair of the selection committee.

APPLICATIONS:

- Applicants must complete a cover sheet and provide a personal statement describing why the candidate should be a recipient of this scholarship and how studying studio art or art history has influenced the candidate’s intellectual perspectives.
- Provide letters of recommendation from two faculty members.
- Provide a copy of a current official OU transcript.
- Application forms are available in 310 WH. Return completed applications to 310 WH.
